Week 7 Newsletter

Giinagay,

Book Week Dress Up – Thanks to everyone for your effort and creativity to participate in our Book Week Dress Up. It was so interesting to see the choices students had made and how proud they were to show off their characters. Excellent participation!

P&C Association's Jolly Soles – It is now time to return any remaining socks and money raised for our P&C Association's Jolly Soles Fundraiser. This has been a very beneficial fundraising drive. We're grateful for the effort and planning by our dedicated P&C to continue to support our school, as well as our families for being a part of it.

UNE Discovery Voyager Day – On the last day of term, our school will be hosting students from Repton and Raleigh public schools. The University of New England will be presenting a selection of engaging science activities for students from K-6. There will be a cost of $5/ student for this event.

Basketball at Raleigh PS – Next Friday we'll be taking a group of students in years 3-6 down to Raleigh Public School to participate in a friendly basketball tournament. Please return permission notes promptly if your child is participating.

Darrundang (Thank you)
