Term 1 Week 9 Newsletter

Giinagay,

Parent/ Carer Feedback

We are kindly requesting parents/ carers to complete a short survey based on their current experiences with our school. It should take less than five minutes to complete and will allow us to reflect on your views to consider how we can better plan for the shared future success of your child. Please visit the following link to complete - <https://forms.gle/5MJunmZjnb5xS8Lg8>

School Cross Country

Our school cross country event will run on Friday the 5th of April here at Orama Public School. Students will all run together on the regular course and be encouraged to challenge themselves to see how far they can run. Parents/ carers are of course welcome to attend and support their child. The Bellinger/ Nambucca District Cross Country Carnival will be held on Friday the 3rd of May (Term 2 Week 1).

Stage 3 Football (Soccer) Gala Day

Students in Years 5 and 6 are participating in the Newcastle Permanent football (soccer) gala day in Sawtell on Wednesday the 10th of April (week 11). A permission note will be handed out early next week for all students who are interested. The format is a non-competitive 5x5. Students will play four games throughout the day. Travel will be provided by accompanying teaching staff. Parents are welcome to attend to spectate.
